

REMARKS

In the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed September 17, 2009, the Examiner indicates that the PCT Article 19 Amendment (supplied with the WO 2005/062050 publication of the application) is considered non-compliant because it failed to indicate the proper status identifier for the claims. Applicants submit that the copy of the Article 19 Claims 1-19 was proper in form and should have been substituted for the claims at pages 16-18 of Publication WO 2005/062050 according to PCT practice. In response, Applicants submit herewith a claim section listing the pending claims consistent with the Article 19 claims and consistent with US claims practice.
